Louisville, Sept. 13 .- There were five new races and two unfinished ones from yesterday on the card at the Louisville Fair and Driving Park Association today. It was necessary to carry three over until to-morrow, of which one was not reached. The sport in point of finishes excelled anything of the musting, for in most every heat there was a fight for the wire. In the fourth race, pace for two-year-olds, Sulphide easily distanced the other two starters in the first heat in 2:134. He went another heat alone, which he made in 2:16. The heat alone, which he made in 2:16. The miscrable car service, owing to the barbecue at the G. A. R., had a bad effect ou the attendance and not more than 1,200 people were on the grounds. The track was fast and the weather perfect. Summaries:

A Sensational Race.

A Sensational Race.

Medroad, Masa, Sept. 15.—In one of the most senational drives ever witnessed at Mystic Park, Ben Walter, who was put up behind Charlie P in the seventh heat of the 2:15 pace, landed the gray gelding a winner, and won the race. Walcott, the driver of Charlie P, was taken oil and fined $250 by the judges. The race was continued from yesterlay, when four heats were run, Charlie P, winning two of them. When the race started this afternoon it was apparent that Walcott was not trying to win, hence his removal. Results:
2:10 class, trot-Bouncer won third, fourth and fifth heats and race. Time, 2:124, 2:135, 2:131. Lightning won first heat in 2:141. Lynne Bell won second heat in 2:144.

New York Not In It.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The question having been raised whether the New York base ball club, which new holds the Temple cup, should defend it against this season's champions. President Young submitted the matter to the lesgue clubs for their decision. To-day he received their votes, and it was decided by a majority of them that the Temple cup series should be played by the clubs holding first and second place at the close of the season.

WITNESS AGAINST DURRANT.

A Woman Who Saw the Prisoner and Blanche Lamont Together.

A Woman Who Saw the Frisoner and Blanche Lamont Tegether.

Sax Francisco, Sept. 13.—The prosecution of Theodore Durrant are prepared now to produce a witness who is expected to overwhelm the young student and destroy his last hope of an alibi. One who knows him well, who left the city that she might not be forced to testify against him, will go upon the witness stand and testify that on the afternoon of April 3 she rode to the mission upon the same car with Blanche Lamont and Durrant. As the car traveled on its way she noticed the young school girl carefully. She observed her clothing, noted her books, watched her movements and followed her conversation with the young student. The girl was unknown to her, but she had watched Durrant from children.

Shortly after 4 o'clock the car arrived at Twenty-second street. The woman who had been interested in the young

Shortly after 4 o'clock the car arrived at Twenty-second street. The woman who had been interested in the young couple arose to leave the car. Durrant and the school girl were already on the way out. The student assisted the girl from the car and then gave his hand to the old lady. The three walked to the sidewalk together and stopped there for a moment to chat, Durrant introduced Blanche Lamont to the old lady and for a few minutes left her to proceed down Twenty-second street, toward Bartlett street. He and Blanche, talking and laughing, walked toward the church.

The story will be told by Mra James Crossett, who lives with Iriendy in the mission. Mrs. Crossett knows Durrant too well to be mission. The very conditions of the case make it impossible ditions of the case make it impossible for an error to be committed. Mrs. Crossett not only saw Durrant, but took his hand and spoke to him. Sue will be placed on the witness stand next
